W. T. Attendance Increased Over Last Year

850 ENROLLED COLLEGE WORK TO WEDNESDAY

Training School Also Has An Increased Number

INCREASE OVER 1934

Opening Program Held Saturday at Chapel Period

Attendance at W. T. reached 850 yesterday, which was a good percentage over the total at the beginning of the regular session last year. The total at a corresponding time last year was 816. The 850 does not include the demonstration school.

The Freshman class this year shows a larger percentage of increase than has been shown in recent years.

The training school will likewise show an increase over the total of 335 enrolled last year. 129 were enrolled yesterday in the high school alone. Many of these come from towns outside of Canyon.

The increased attendance in the College was predicted owing to the large number of students who sought advanced information regarding the work here.

Two musical numbers by the college orchestra, invocation by the Rev. Mr. Stuart Marsh, and the union singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers," by the audience, preceded the short welcome addresses at the formal opening assembly Saturday morning.

C. R. Burrow, mayor of Canyon and first speaker on the program in telling of the progress made by West Texas State Teachers College told of a cartoon made of the first administration building here when the artist portrayed the building with a lone wolf crouching on the doorstep, a rough cowboy peeking around the corner, a prairie dog and his home on the campus, and the president standing in the doorway ringing the bell to summon the students to school.

Supt. Irby Carruth of the Canyon Public Schools; Supt. Rogers, of the Amarillo City Schools; Supt. C. B. Irving, Perryton, and Supt. Rhodes of Dalhart each said words of welcome and encouragement to the members of the fall student body. John E. Hill, Amarillo, member of the Board of Regents, also gave a short address.

P. O. Site Will Be Chosen Today

Inspector Here Today Looking Over Sites—Two More Offered During Past Week

The site for the new post office building in Canyon will probably be selected during today, or at least recommendations will be made for the final selection.

The postal inspector from Fort Worth notified Postmaster Guy Harp Tuesday that he would be in Canyon today to make an inspection of the sites offered.

Additional information was requested by the inspector regarding the needs of the local office, which was compiled by the postmaster and his assistants.

A photograph of each site was required, and the owner of each site was requested to meet the inspector and to go over the offer with him.

Just when the final selection will be announced was not determined before the coming of the inspector.

B. T. Johnson and Mrs. Andy Costley filed bids for the location, and it is expected that other bids will be filed by the time the inspector closes the books.

Fair Crowd Visited Palo Duro Park During Past Week

In spite of many other attractions, a fair sized crowd visited the Palo Duro State Park during the past week.

The total for the week was 226 cars, with 154 of these cars coming Sunday. The attendance was light during the week days, largely to be attributed to the Tri-State Fair.

Among the towns contributing cars were: Amarillo 65; Pampa 11; Lubbock 9; Borger, Canyon 7; Plainview, Tulsa 4; Dallas Hereford, San Antonio, Shamrock, Wichita 3 each; 41 other towns contributed one and two cars. Sixteen states outside of Texas were represented, sending 42 cars. 17 of the 42 came from Oklahoma.

Buffaloes to Vernon For Game Saturday

Team Shows Improvement This Week After First Game Friday — Will Take All Squadmen

"On to Vernon and Take Those Savages," is the war cry, as the Buffaloes make hurried preparations to meet the Southeastern Teachers of Durant, Okla., in Vernon on Saturday night, Sept. 28.

Coaches Baggett and Cox will lead their crew into Vernon, lock, stock, and barrel, and make a desperate effort to keep their '35 season record clear against one of the toughest teams that ever blew out of the Bow and Arrow State.

The Buffs came out of the Pan-Agg game in great shape, and have been bearing down in face of the coming struggle.

A mere handicap doesn't even begin to explain the disadvantage that the "Profs" will face in the second game of the season. Coach

Canyon Golf Team Swamps Tulia Sunday in 16-2 Games

The Canyon golf team won 16 of the 18 games played last Sunday in the tournament with the Tulia team. The locals had been defeated at Tulia two weeks previously.

The two Canyon men to lose were Don Savage, shooting a 70, and Carl Scott shooting a 76. Savage lost 3-4, and Scott 1 up.

Those winning their matches were: Reeves, Craig, J. L. Duflot, Leo Duflot, Lockhart, Mickle, Brown, Mark Foster, Terrill, Leslie Key, Gano, Walsh, Sanders, Price, Britain.

Guy Harp Heads Red Cross For the Coming Year

Guy Harp was selected Friday as chairman of the Randall County Red Cross Chapter for the coming year. Mr. Harp succeeds C. R. Burrow, who has been chairman for the past two years.

A representative of the Southwest Division office of Red Cross was here Friday to plan for the annual Roll Call which will be made starting Nov. 11. The Roll Call chairman will be selected this week.

A new work is being undertaken by the Red Cross this year. It is a survey of home and farm accidents, and will be carried on through the schools. Irby Carruth was named chairman of this new work. It will be the aim to eliminate as far as possible all hazards from the homes of the county which might deal to serious accidents.

Local Rains In Canyon Territory During the Week

.89 Inch of Rain Falls Monday and Tuesday, But Did Not Cover the County

Canyon received .89 of an inch of rain Monday and Tuesday. The rain measured .77 of an inch Monday afternoon, .07 Monday night, and .05 Tuesday afternoon.

Unfortunately these rains did not extend to a large part of the county. Monday's rain started southeast of Canyon and traveled west through the middle section of the county. Nearly all parts of the county received some rain, but in varying amounts. This rain extended west to Hereford.

The rains lowered the temperature which has prevailed during the past two weeks, cooling the atmosphere to a great degree.

The feed crops will be greatly benefited by the sections which received the rain, but a general rain extending to all sections of the Panhandle is hoped for during the coming week. A general rain has not fallen in months. Much wheat land has been prepared as a result of the rains early this month, and the general rain is needed to improve planting conditions.

Notices are being mailed to property owners in order that they may make their tax payments at this time.

CAMPUS JOBS TO CONTINUE IMPROVEMENT

Labor Believed Ready By First of Next Month

APPROVED SAT'DY

Planning Board Checks Projects With District Manager

WPA projects are scheduled to start in Randall county about the first of October, according to R. W. Willis, district director of projects, who met Saturday morning with the Randall County Planning Board.

Mr. Willis has approved 121 men now on the relief rolls for work on WPA projects when final approval is received on these projects from Washington, and orders are given to start.

The local board found that the projects in Randall county aside from the highway work will use up all of the labor available at the present time. However, more men are expected to become qualified for this labor as winter comes on.

The project approved for the first labor are those under way on the campus of W. T., and widening of Fourth Avenue. The various jobs around Buffalo Courts, the Recreation Hall, and on the Buffalo Stadium were divided so that work might be carried on to better advantage.

Another project approved for labor was the swimming pool at the Palo Duro State Park, if the legislature provides for materials.

None of the highway jobs were approved at the present time, as the state WPA office at San Antonio has so far not approved any of this type of work. The position is taken that highway work can be handled by the state highway department, and WPA jobs are for the purpose of eliminating relief.

Men employed on WPA will be paid $21 per month for unskilled labor, while the price will increase for various kinds of skilled labor.

WPA has been delayed for several weeks, but it is confidently expected that once it is underway there will be no delays during the winter. It is supposed that much of the red tape which has surrounded other relief labor will be eliminated from the projects as they get under way.

2876 Cadre Gave Departing Dinner at Palo Duro Park

A farewell dinner was given Tuesday night by CCC Co. 2876 by the white cadre which came to set up the camp before the coming of the negro workers. Mess Sergeant Howard C. Hammett was in charge of preparations for the dinner.

Supt. L. J. Bryan was toastmaster. Talks were made by Lieut. Carey M. Abney, Jr., Lieut. Jno. T. Evans, H. D. Anastasas, and Clyde W. Warwick.

Music was furnished by the negroes of the company. Those furnishing numbers were Theodore Mathis, Jesse Thompson, L. A. V. Walker, and a quartet composed of Sam Williams, Oscar Lee Roper, F. T. Waggoner and Edmund Cross.

The cadre will leave Friday for Tucson, Ariz., to set up another CCC camp.

Nothing definite has been learned as to when one of the two companies will be moved, and where it will go.

THE LEGISLATIVE SCRAMBLE

No session of a Texas legislature faces a series of such hard problems as the present one. Whatever is done will probably be wrong, owing to the complex situation.

The liquor problem is the first big nut to crack. The wets have taken charge of the situation and instead of outlawing the saloon, as they promised in the constitutional amendment, they are seeking to make exceptions of eating places and clubs where liquor may be sold. They seek to continue the open saloon as any place where liquor is sold by the drink. This is the only sensible attitude. A good many legislators will be scratching their heads and looking to the future of their political lives as they ponder this question of defining the saloon. The pros are in a majority, and should write a law which will forever bar the saloon, which the wets are seeking to impose on the people regardless of their many promises.

Then comes the old age pension problem, in connection with taxation which will be necessary to pay the pension. The News opposed the old age pension amendment because it was not safeguarded. And sure enough, two bills are pending giving a pension to every person over 65 years of age, with no limit on the finances of the recipients. Of course the legislature will place restrictions on those who will receive the pension, but you will see each succeeding legislature more liberal until finally the benefits of the pension will be extended to practically every person 65 years of age. This will not come in the immediate future but many persons living today will see the fight made to liberalize the pension to that extent.

The legislature has refused in recent years to pass bills increasing taxes. Something must be done now or the old age pension will be a farce. Governor Allred has singled out a few industries and recommends that they carry the load. That is an unjust attitude. If these industries are not paying an adequate tax, of course, they should pay more. But no industry large or small should be penalized for the benefit of all the people. Taxation is one of the biggest problems facing any legislature or any congress.

This legislature must also fix the salaries which may be paid by counties when the officers go off the fee basis. The county officer organization has a strong lobby at Austin, and it will look after the interest of the members. Besides, legislators are fearful to oppose county officers to any extent. The county officers are closer to the people than the legislators, and some political heads are liable to drop as a result of this bill.

Provisions must be made to put into effect the other constitutional amendments voted by the people in July.

All in all, this session of the legislature promises to be historic either in its accomplishments, or its failure to accomplish the goal for which it was called.

Walter D. Cline resigned as manager of the Texas Centennial when the directors cut his salary $10,000 per year and took away much of his authority. Possibly the trouble with Cline was that he lived in Wichita Falls instead of Dallas, since the fat plums are falling very largely in the laps of Dallas people. Cline was one of the first to advocate the Centennial. He has spent months of hard work on the project. No one knows its problems and its possibilities so well as Cline. The Centennial will suffer as a result of his resignation. Dual control has never worked in any line of enterprise, and since big things must be accomplished by the Centennial in a short period of time, it was a grave mistake for the directors to cause Walter Cline to resign.

What excuse can sensible men give for plunging nations into war? War brings out the worst there is in nations and in the people engaged. It engenders hatred, lawlessness of every description, greed. Not one single good thing may be expected to arise from the ravages of war. The world war was largely brought about by the munition makers who sought to gain huge personal fortune; the present proposed war will be brought to save the political face of Mussolini. Future wars will be staged on the same slimy plane unless the nations of the earth take definite steps to outlaw war. It is proposed in this nation to take the profit out of war, and if this is done, munition corporations will not be nearly so anxious to start conflicts.

The Clovis News-Journal complains that Amarillo is boosting highway 66 west from Amarillo at the expense of highway 60, which comes through Canyon, Clovis, and on west. Anyone who has driven both highways will never go over 66 a second time, in spite of what Amarillo may say about it. As a matter of fact, Amarillo is making a mistake in everlastingly tooting it up for 66, considering the fact that there is a greater population on 60 in both Texas and New Mexico who are interested in getting to Amarillo. You may expect to hear Mac Stanton say several things to and about Amarillo on this subject. Last week he proposed an allegiance with Clovis and Lubbock against the attitude shown by Amarillo in this and other matters.

If this government continues to encourage extravagance by the continued threat of penalizing those who are thrifty and invest their savings in business and industry, who will remain in a few years to pay the huge bill that will arise from the new social security act? Imposing a huge tax, sales or otherwise, just to give people a lot of money to spend is not a solid basis of national security.

Many local people wonder at the delay in selecting the site for the new postoffice building. The bill in congress which authorized the erection of postoffices, provided for nearly 400 such offices. Hardly enough money was appro-

This has thrown a large amount of emergency work on the postoffice department to get all of these buildings started. The County Relief Board over at Wellington resigned in a huff last week, stating that it was being ignored by the higher ups. If they just discovered that they have been out of the picture for the past six months, something must be wrong with their imagination. This is a day of centralized government; Austin and Washington are the only bodies of government which count.

Announcement has been made that the Santa Fe Railroad has bought the Kansas Stage lines, the largest system of busses and trucks in the Southwest. It is believed that the railroads will soon control this method of transportation in other states. The railroads are fighting for their lives, and have no other recourse than to get into the truck business or to continue operating at a loss.

Political observers believe that Italy will start war any day now. The nations of the world are attempting to forestall the beginning by refusing credit to Mussolini. Certainly this nation cannot be expected to finance another war, or to take part in the strife between European nations.

BUFFS TROUNCE AGGIES HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

First Game of Season
Won By Score
Of 14-0

"They did it and how." Those galloping flurries in football boots coached by Al Baggett and Bob Cox, ran amuck and brought the season in as big as Dallas, Waco, and Dodge City as they took the Panhandle Aggies into camp to the tune of 14 to 0 Friday night.

Early in the first quarter the Buffs opened up with a running attack that was as slick as a bowl of okra. Frank Van Noy went deep into his bag of bafflers and sent Wood Dow and Lawrence Clark scampering for long gains that netted the first marker, and made the outlook for the Aggies as hard as a caboose bed.

The second touchdown came in the third quarter after an exchange of punts that placed the ball on the Aggies 33 yard line. Vernon Johnson went into the game, and fumbled but recovered. Van Noy picked up a 19 yard gain on a lateral pass, and Johnson retaliated with a 19 yard run off tackle that put the ball on the 1 yard line. Dow made the touchdown on a straight line buck, and kicked goal.

The Teachers came in an ace of making two more touchdowns. In the second quarter the Buffs opened up and drove to the 1 yard line, but the Aggies held and punted out of danger. In the fourth quarter a series of spinners and end "around's" put the ball on the Aggies 7, but the Aggies intercepted a pass and ran the ball out of danger.

The Buffs folded up at times and when they did the Aggies took advantage of the "ease-ups" and punted out 7 first downs. The Panhandlers worked like "Trojans" but never got in sight of the goal line.

All in all it was a great game. There were times when the Buffs showed weakness, but this fault they hope to iron out by next Saturday night when they spread their color in foreign fields.

Summary of game: Yards gained from scrimmage: Buffs 213; Aggies 61; first downs Buffs 16; Aggies 7; penalties: Buffs 40; Aggies 5; passes, Buffs 10, Aggies 21; passes completed, Buffs, 3 for 35 yards; Aggies 1 for 35; passes intercepted, Buffs 0, Aggies 1 for 35; time out, Buffs 1, Aggies 2; punts average, Buffs, 6 for 42. Aggies, 8 for 35; fumbles Buffs 1, Aggies 2.

the wild animal subjugators, with more than a score of fighting, jungle-bred lions and tigers; John Heliott, renowned German trainer of savage beasts; Maximo, comedian of the slack wire; the famed Christiani troupe of bareback riders in somersaults from horse to horse; the Flying Codonas, the Hills and a great group of aerialists; Rudyhoff, noted equestrian and his educated horses; the Merckels, who walk upside down on lofty mirrors in the dome of the big tent; "Cheerful" Gardiner and twenty performing elephants; scores of clowns led by Earl Shipley, Paul Jerome and the Paul Jung Clown Acrobatic Trio; dozens of pretty equestriennes, a huge oriental spectacle and a big contingent of Indians, cowboys and cowgirls from the Pawnee Bill Ranch at Old Town, Oklahoma. Performances will be presented at 2 and 8 p. m. with doors open one hour earlier in each instance to permit leisurely inspection of the world's largest and finest traveling wild animal menagerie which boasts among other zoological marvels a baby giraffe.

AIDS GIVEN BY H. D. WOMEN CO-OPERATORS

"Ten cents worth of dry yeast has been enough foundation yeast to last all summer," said Mrs. W. T. Davis, co-operator in the Edgetown Home Demonstration club, to Miss Allie Dozier, County Home Demonstration Agent.

Mrs. Davis has made yeast bread twice a week, averaged making 4 loaves each time. Every time she made four or five cakes of yeast from part of the sponge; when this was used she bought another cake of yeast and started over again.

"A young neighbor of mine had complained several times to me that her machine just wouldn't sew and she wanted me to see if I could do anything about it. I went over and found so much lint and dust had collected under the feeder that it sewed about ten stitches and skipped about ten stitches. After cleaning and oiling it sewed nicely," said Mrs. W. T. Davis, co-operator in the Edgetown Home Demonstration club, to Miss Allie Dozier, County Home Demonstration Agent.

According to Miss Allie Dozier, a piece of an old wind shield is used instead of a dough board, by Mrs. J. B. Knox, bread demonstrator of the Sunny Hill Home Demonstration club.

Mrs. Knox finds that the dough doesn't stick so badly and it isn't so easy to work too much flour into the dough, when it is kneaded on the glass.

"I strained my fruit juices thru milk filter pads and strainer to obtain clear jelly," said Mrs. J. E. Park, co-operator of the Park Home Demonstration club.

Mrs. Park finds that this method makes clearer jelly and is much faster when the jelly bags are used.

"School time is bread-making time," said Mrs. J. E. Hunter, bread demonstrator for the West Side Home Demonstration club.

Mrs. Hunter averages making 18 loaves of bread a week in order to have plenty of bread for sandwiches.

"One ball of red and white wrapping twine, costing 90 cents, made one adult's crocheted dress and one girl's dress, size 12 years," said Mrs. J. J. Wright, co-operator in the West Side Home Demonstration club. Mrs. Wright won second place on her crocheted dress, made of this twine, in the Tri-State Fair.

Ralph Harter returned to his work at the postoffice Monday after being out on account of illness for several weeks.

He then discussed some of the changes which have taken place in the basic institutions, the family, the church, the village community, government and industry, and indicated the problems which are to be solved today as a result of these.

In summarizing present problems, Mr. Dufflot said, "People must now learn to work together to secure the things they want; success and happiness cannot now be secured through the efforts of the individual working alone."

At the business meeting, the club voted to continue to meet in the Legion Hall and expressed appreciation of the Legion's efforts to make the Hall a community center.

Great Ship Canal, Providing 'Short Cut' Across Florida, Gets Under Way

WORK has begun on the greatest project of its kind since the Panama Canal—a waterway which, within the next four years, may bisect Florida and make the southern part technically an island.

The new $150,000,000 "Big Ditch" will save the long, perilous ship haul around Florida's reef-strewn tip on which, recently, the steamer Dixie was hurled by hurricane winds.

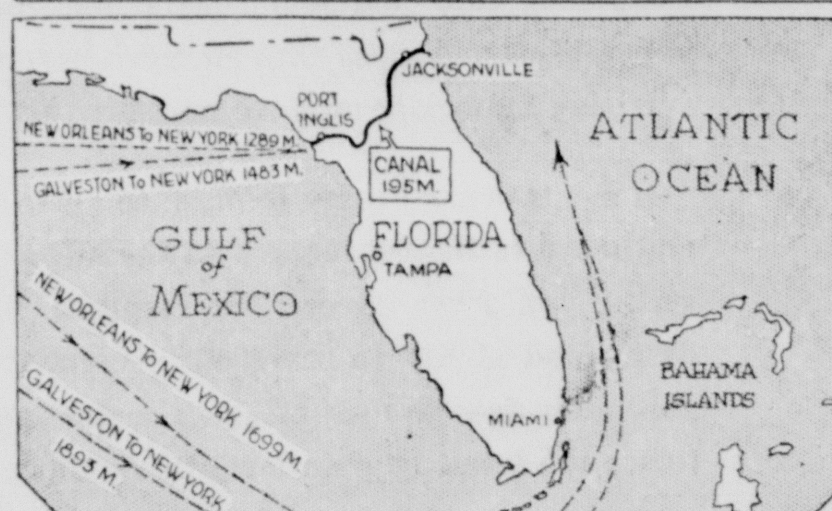

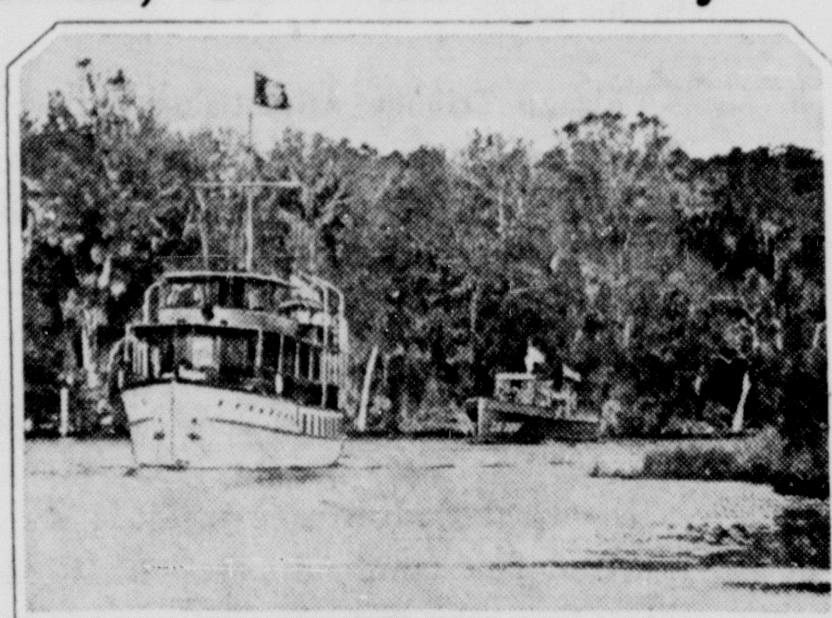

On each trip, it is claimed, vessels plying between New York and Gulf ports such as New Orleans, Galveston, and Tampico, will save several hundred miles, at an estimated annual savings in transportation costs of $7,500,000.

The projected short cut across the Florida peninsula will extend 195 miles from Jacksonville, on the Atlantic, to a Gulf point near Port Inglis. Creation of half of the projected canal will simply mean dredging to a depth of 30 feet, since 100 miles of its route will coincide with the courses of the Withlacoochee, Oklawaha, and St. Johns rivers. The other 95 miles will be carved through high, open country near Palatka, and between Dunnellon and Silver Springs.

There will be no locks, it being a sea-level canal; but four spill-water dams will be needed to adjust the canal channel to those of the rivers and lakes with which it will connect.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S approval of an allotment of $5,000,000 to launch work on the Florida ship canal successfully culminates a long campaign on the part of north Florida and the other Gulf states.

The canal seems already to have divided Florida in opinion on its merits. South Floridians are bitterly opposed to the whole thing. Naturally, they don't relish diversion of ship traffic to the north; and they point to the possibility suggested in an old Geological Survey report—that infiltrating salt sea water might pollute underground water sources and lay waste thousands of acres of rich farms and citrus lands.

Despite this opposition, construction of the canal is under way and, if the next Congress sees fit to provide needed additional appropriations, it will go through to completion.

Harris Cook Talks on Rotary Work at Tuesday Luncheon

Harris M. Cook, chairman of the Public Information Committee, talked at the luncheon Tuesday on the four outstanding phases of Rotary.

"Rotary was established on both an idea and an ideal," stated Mr. Cook. The idea was to get men together to discuss public questions; the ideal resulted in the code of ethics and the objective of the club. These draw out the best in men; teaches them their responsibility to their fellow men. Rotary does not take the place of other organizations, but acts as a cement to draw the others together.

The four major interests of Rotary are: Club, Vocational, Community and International Service. The club is a cross section of the community, and the Club Service cultivates fellowship between the members. "To know a man leads on to understand him, and appreciate him," stated the speaker.

Each member represents a distinctive worthwhile vocation in the community. Therefore, to be chosen as a representative of a vocation in Rotary adds dignity to the vocation. It shows that the vocation is an essential part of the community.

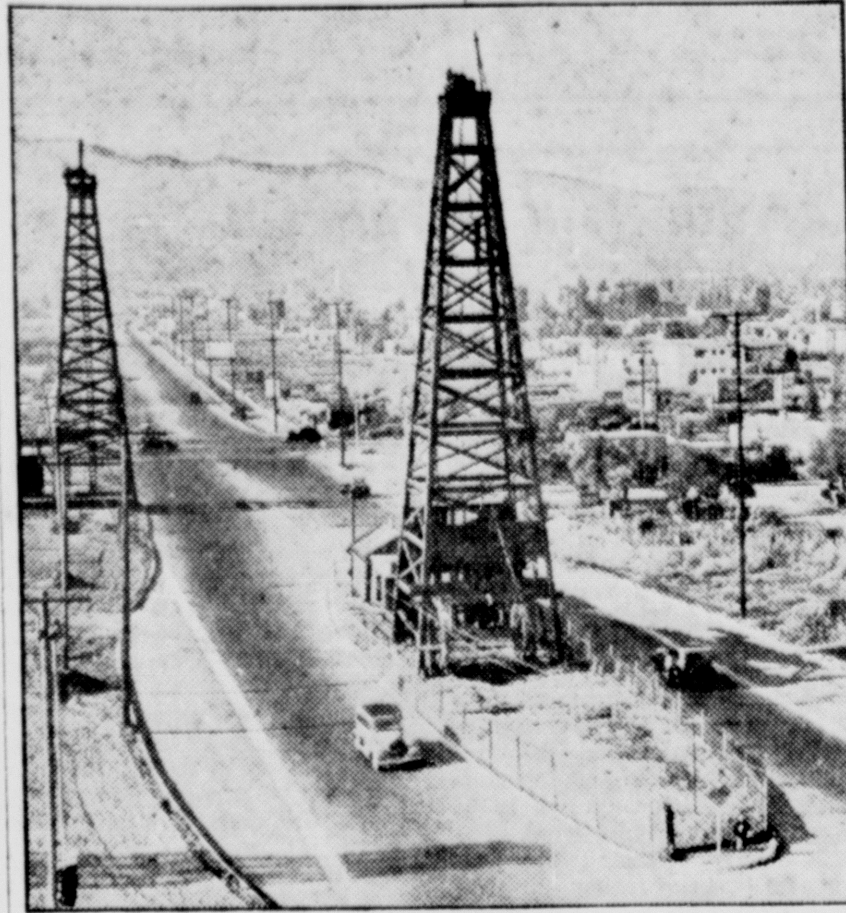

Community Service is the greatest opportunity offered by the Club. It widens the interest of the members. It makes the members strive for a clean, decent, wholesome community. Rotarians are everywhere engaged, not as a club, but as individuals in the leadership of religious, social and recreational development.

Perhaps the first three would be sufficient for most men in a community like Canyon, stated the speaker, since we are far from the national border. But every international affair now has a direct bearing upon every citizen in this nation from a political and economic standpoint.

Mr. Cook pointed out the interest of all peoples in the threatened war between Italy and Ethiopia and how it affects every citizen. As the individual knows these nations, he better understands their rights and their viewpoint.

The four services in Rotary have

Reduce Age Limit For Boys Entering CCC Employment

Minimum age limit for CCC enrollees has been lowered from 18 to 17, State Enrollment Supervisor Neal E. Guy announced Saturday from Austin.

The ruling will apply for the October enrollment, when every eligible person in the state is expected to be given a chance to enlist in the CCC. The quota for Randall county is expected this week.

Enrollment will be open for all unmarried men between 17 and 28. The dates are inclusive, and a person who has passed his seventeenth birthday is eligible, as is one who has not reached his twenty-ninth.

Mandatory discharges have been discounted, and enrollees may stay in camps indefinitely. Also, persons honorably discharged may re-enlist provided their previous service has not been less than four months. Eligible enrollees, however, honorably discharged prior to October, 1933, may be re-selected without regard to length of previous service.

Guy advised persons in the lower age brackets, particularly the 17-year-olds who are in school, to continue their schooling as long as possible, with the hope of enlisting later. For those who cannot continue in school, the CCC conducts an educational program in each camp, he pointed out.

Survey Being Made to Determine Number Following NRA

The extent to which business men of Texas and the Nation have been able to retain NRA code principles of labor, wages and fair trade practices, in face of severe business chiseling by the minority, since the compulsory codes were terminated in May, is now being ascertained by the National Recovery Administration.

In Texas this is being done by a series of intensive industrial surveys under the supervision of

Great and Careful Preparations Assure the President an Ideal Trip

WHILE most of the country has awaited with interest President Roosevelt's cross-country trip, a group of people among them secret service men and railroad officials, have been as busy as the proverbial paper-hanger.

When an ordinary person plans a trip, he packs up, buys his ticket, and boards his plane, train, or boat. But a presidential trip involves days, even weeks, of careful planning, the services of thousands of people and a flurry of activity along the contemplated route.

Preparations made for a presidential trip several years ago illustrate the hustle-bustle which such a tour entails. President Hoover was going to Florida.

Within a few days preceding the trip, railroad officials had sent out a sheaf of orders nearly 100 pages thick.

The president traveled south in a Presidential Special, the very last word in rail-travel comfort. Hordes of trackwalkers had previously scanned every foot of rail over which the nation's No. 1 man rode. Special guards were placed at bridges, tunnels, and other strategic points along the road. At main division points, complete wrecking crews were stationed for emergencies.

No train in motion was allowed to meet the president's train. Passenger trains going in the opposite direction were stopped before the special was due. A pilot train ran five minutes ahead of the special, and another one an equal interval behind it.

ALMOST invariably, the dining car superintendent of the line, in person, supervises feeding the presidential party. The stewards' department of any railroad running out of Washington, incidentally, knows down to the last detail the food preferences of the current chief executive.

A week or more before the president sets out, an advance man goes over the entire distance

Ernest L. Tutt at Dallas, who is regional director for the administration.

"Unless forced into deviations from formerly existing NRA standards by the comparatively few establishments which have reverted willingly to the 'rugged individualism' which typified the kind of ruthless competition prevailing back in 1933 prior to NRA, we find industry generally striving to continue these benefits," Director Tutt said. "It is both significant and noteworthy that many of the businessmen of this state, who were formerly opposed to code regulation, are now raising their voices for regulated competition assuring fair trade practices."

Work never kills, but it makes some people get mighty tired.

Waving his hat, and smiling, President Roosevelt is shown above leaving for one of his cross-country trips. But before his start, a thousand and one details, assuring him a comfortable and safe journey, had to be arranged.

of the journey. The great man's route from rail station to hotel or auditorium in each of the towns he will visit must be laid out carefully; police aid must be drafted for manipulating the crowds and clearing traffic; and automobiles must be hired for the presidential party, secret service men, etc.

Before the party arrives at any particular destination, provision must have been made for everything from the president's progress through the streets to the number and safety of the elevators that will carry him to his hotel suite.

ALL these details, and hundreds of others, will have to be arranged before President Roosevelt sets out on his western tour the latter part of this month. It is believed he will confer with midwestern political leaders, visit Boulder Dam and the San Diego World's Fair, and return by boat through the Panama Canal and up the Atlantic coast.

If nothing mars his progress or enjoyment of the cross-country swing, hundreds of people who smoothed and guarded his way will have earned the president's appreciation.

it will not be a money campaign. The first Sunday in October, Oct. 6th, will be a Rally Day at the Christian Church. We will have a basket dinner following the morning service. Make plans now to be there and to bring somebody else with you.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

From Present Indications, It's Not Going to Be Easy to Hold Those Tigers During World Series . . . Will Britons Break Ryder Cup Spell?

BY PHILIP MARTIN

WHEN the curtain fell on the last world series, and the St. Louis Cards had sent the Detroit Tigers slinking away to their lair, there was much speculation among fans as to whether the Tigers were the strongest outfit the junior circuit could put forward.

Some believed that the Bengals appearance in the series had been due to luck and the fact that that Cochrane's men had escaped their quota of ill-fortune that besets most teams during the course of a season. Those fans believed 1935 would find the upstarts in their proper brackets—somewhere at the rear of the first division.

BY their showing this year, however, the Tigers have confounded the skeptics. With the Auto City boys thundering down the stretch several lengths ahead, it's exceedingly difficult for their critics to explain away two in a row.

A bunch of nervous youngsters—Owen, Greenberg, Auker, Rowe, and others—composed the majority of the team that took part in the 1934 playoff. There were but a sprinkling of vets, such as Cochrane, Gehring, Goslin, and Marberry.

As the series got under way it became very apparent that the kids were under a terrific strain, despite their show of aggressiveness. Detroit was racked with diamond fever and anticipation of a juicy world series victory. Their boys wouldn't let their city down; they couldn't!

The role of conquering heroes was no easy one. During the heat of battle, muscles were tensed to steel-like hardness; when critical situations arose, demanding split-second reactions, those muscles just wouldn't respond.

And Manager Mickey Cochrane's stormy personality wasn't calculated to set his charges at ease, give them a chance to relax.

All of which perhaps explains last year's debacle. But so much for 1934. What are the world series prospects for the Tigers this year?

With the calm assurance born of another year's experience, and unured to the fan clamor, the Bengals this time should be tough to take. In fact, we'll wager a green fedora on their chances.

GOLFERS the country over are wondering whether visiting British linksmen will succeed in breaking the spell which has lain over the Ryder Cup. Since 1927, the year the cup was put up by Samuel Ryder, British sportsman, this emblem of international team supremacy in professional golf has invariably been won by the team fighting on home soil.

The Americans won at Worcester, Mass., in 1927; the Britons at Moortown, near London, in 1929; in 1931, at Columbus, O., the Americans copped; in 1933, at Southport, Eng., the Britons won after a hard battle.

And it doesn't look as if the visitors this year will succeed in breaking that spell. The Ryder Cup matches are being held on the course of the Ridgewood Country Club in New Jersey. The reason the odds appear to be against the Britons is that their team includes no fewer than four new recruits—Jack Busson, Dick Burton, Bill Cox, and Edward Jarman. Alfred Perry, reigning British Open champion, and Alf Padgham, both of whom played in the 1933 matches, have not played over here before.

On the other hand, Walter Hagen, captaining the United States team for the fifth time, also has four new hands to throw into the fray: Henry Picard, Johnny Revolta, Ky Laffoon, and Sam Parks, Jr. The other members, Hagen, Sarazen, Paul Runyan, Olin Dutra, Horton Smith, and Craig Wood, however, have had previous Ryder Cup experience. Accordingly, the home team again looks good to win.

THE EAGLE'S TALE

Back Eagles at Panhandle Game

CANYON, TEXAS, SEPTEMBER 26, 1935.

Cactus
Cal

Well, kids, it was just bad luck we had Saturday night, but it was a good game anyway. But the football boys are determined to lick Panhandle Friday night. They're smooching their plays over till they'll run as slick as grease. They even worked in the gym Monday evening, since it was raining; so let's just everybody don't be like some of these gals that just stays with a man while he is winning, as well all the time, but just think a six to nothing loss to a good team like Lefors wasn't so bad.

I sure do like the way that old loyalty campaign is turning out. Then seniors is showing the school that they can do things, but there's another thing that Canyon has done, too: we've got a boys' pep squad, and they sure did yell at the game, the other night. They dress in white all the way around and the gals dress in purple, and that sure whips up the school spirit.

Then old kids is going to plunge deep into politics to elect a president Friday and they sure will argue. I'm anxious to hear them because I sure do like to hear the best schools have debates, and I like to see the pep squads have a rally, and I like best of all to see a good football game; so don't forget, Panhandle Friday night.

GIVE YOUR ATTENTION
Did you notice anything in particular during the first assembly program that should call for so much outside talking. Evidently there was something that caused unusual interest to the students, because there was an unusual amount of talking and other things used as noise making devices during the assembly program? Did you notice again in the next assembly program that Superintendent Carruth had to stop his talk to ask for attention?

Perhaps this unusual noise was due to the fact that everyone was anxious to see the football boys in their new suits. In one corner of the auditorium a freshman would drop a book or squeak his seat, while in another corner the sophomores and juniors were carrying on a lengthy conversation or writing and passing notes. Among the senior class there were whispers such as this, "You write this article for the paper," and "that would make a good feature or editorial." With all this going on at the same time and Mr. Carruth's voice getting louder and louder, the auditorium was filled with an unusual amount of various types and chords, which didn't altogether harmonize so well. It is our own assembly, students; let's make it one we can enjoy.

Pirates Win Over Eagles In First Game of Season

Coach Jones' Eagles lost the initial game of the season to the Lefors Pirates by a score of 6 to 0, at Buffalo Stadium, Saturday night.

Out played several points, the Eagles weighed an excellent game. They made 92 yards from scrimmage, while the visitors made only 61. The local boys made four first downs to the visitors' two, and surpassed them in penetrations.

The Pirates' tally came early in the second quarter when they blocked an Eagle punt; then, after a series of line drives, succeeded in getting the ball across the goal line.

The Eagles threatened the visitors' goal line twice, but failed to make a score.

S. B. Orton Talks To Fourth Grade

S. B. Orton talked to Mrs. Isabel Cousins' fourth grade room last Monday, and showed pictures taken on his various tours this summer and in previous summers.

The children were taken to Mexico, California, and up the coast to Washington and Oregon. They then visited in Yellowstone National Park, Colorado and Wyoming. They came back to Texas and went from here east through Louisiana, and up the eastern coast to New York. On their return trip, they came by the Great Lakes, and then home. After they returned, they were shown pictures of Canyon.

Civics Class Does Interesting Work

The civics class is doing some interesting work this year. Almost every day the members are found working at their work books.

Superintendent I. B. Carruth is trying to work plans so as to have a round table discussion in which everyone will take part and will not feel that it is compulsory to study and take part, but that the study is so interesting that everyone unconsciously takes a great part in the class discussion.

Monday, Mr. Carruth in the discussion of communism, told of some of the conditions in Russia. He said that about all the poorest working class had to eat was cabbage.

Home Economics Class Cans Food

The second year home economics class, under the supervision of Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel canned 31 pints of food last week.

The pupils of the class have brought the vegetables and fruit from home to be canned. The foods they can are going to be used for school use, such as banquets and parties, and the meals the girls serve in class during the year.

They have canned three pints of green beans, one pint of English peas, two pints of beans, four pints of tomatoes, two pints of steak, one pint of peaches, two pints of apples, two pints of pears, and 13 pints of carrots. Four pints of the carrots are for Mrs. A. N. Burgan.

REVIVALS OBSERVED

The public school has postponed all social and activity events until next week. The school is observing the Baptist and Methodist church revivals to be held in Canyon this week.

KIKER PLANTS GRASS

Milton Kiker, janitor at the high school, has planted new grass on the south lawn. The new grass will greatly improve the appearance of the school.

Kenneth Black, Hampton Lisle, Roland Black and Curtis Ellison, ex-students of Canyon High School attended assembly Friday afternoon.

The Senior Class won the loyalty campaign Friday by a margin of $17.20, and will have its name engraved on the Loyalty Cup.

The Sophomore Class turned in $29; the Sophomore Class won second with $11.80. The juniors turned in $10.50, and the freshmen $4.35.

The Freshman Class in 1933 got its name on the cup, and last year the whole school name was put on because each class was 100 per cent loyal.

The loyalty campaign is being held in two laps covering two weeks time. The class turning in the most money for the two weeks will receive a small cash prize.

Student Council Candidates To Be Chosen Tomorrow

In assembly tomorrow afternoon the formal opening of the election of the student council president will be held.

Candidates will be elected from the senior class; campaign managers will be chosen, and speeches will be made.

This idea was first instituted in 1932 by Mr. George Terry, a former principal of Canyon High School. At that time Leonard Brasuel was the president. The following year, Ernest Duncan was chosen, and in 1934 the president was Mary Ella Lowe.

The student council co-operates with the students in governing the student body, in fire drills, in making rules of different kinds, helping to plan and carry out assembly programs, and in general helping the student welfare.

The approaching election will close Monday, at which time those having paid 5 cents will be entitled to vote. The money will be used for postage expenses and other miscellaneous expenses of the student council.

After the election is closed, two students will be elected from each class to represent that class in the student council.

Play Football And Win The Women

"You've gotta be a football hero to get along with the beautiful girls."

Even though Coach Cleveland Jones tries to impress upon the football career, they seem to feel football boys' minds to leave "wine, women and song" out of their part of this quite urgent, at least some of the players.

You can't tell me Pat Cox, Eagle captain, would have played such a hard game if he hadn't watched a certain junior girl was watching the game. As far as that goes Sewel Cox kinda felt like he was responsible for some hard playing because after all, look who's president of that bunch of pep squad girls.

Some of the new players like Darwin Dobbs, haven't gotten acquainted with the fair sex just yet or maybe they would have played a little better or maybe from the way he did play, Coach is right about football and women not mixing, anyway I still feel that.

"The fact that you are rich and handsome doesn't mean a thing in the eyes of a girl—you've gotta be a football hero to get along with the beautiful girls."

Jr. Class Elects New Class Heads

The Junior Class elected a new president and vice president, Tuesday, Sept. 17.

Willard Childers, former president of the Junior Class resigned last week, when he left for Wayland to attend school. The vice president of the class, Melvin Calhoun, was made president, and Ralph Rusk was elected vice president.

Edith Steen, '35, left Saturday for Post, where she is visiting her sister.

"Do you permit yourself to deceive the public?"
"No," said Senator Sorghum.
"The public has learned all kinds of tricks. I'm doing pretty well to keep them from deceiving me."

High School Principal Says—

THE YEARS OBJECTIVES

The general objectives of the Canyon Public Schools for the school year of 1935-36 will be the spiritual, mental and physical development of every child. A planned and energetic effort will be made to see that each child receives part of the benefit of these objectives. Full development into a normal, rational, happy individual is impossible without attention to all three of these elements of personal training.

A specific objective for the school year will be to co-operate with the State Curriculum Revision Program by continuing production of new materials for the changing curriculum. An intensive and extensive reading program will be carried on by all members of the faculty of curriculum materials collected from the most progressive schools of the United States. Practically one hundred per cent of the faculty did research in this field during the past summer in various colleges and universities.

An effort is being made to furnish adequate material for the reorganization of the subject matter. A work shop with new, additional books, and new time allotments will be arranged in order to facilitate the integration of subjects and activities. Great interest in the new program is being manifest by the teachers and it is the wish of the entire faculty that contributions of value can be made to the state program by the end of the year.

Next week, Mr. Pope, principal of the high school, will state the ways in which the patrons of the school can assist in making this program a success.

Interest Attracting Methods Practiced By Senior English

"You may not all be public speakers, but you have surely acquired a method of drawing interest," remarked Miss Goodrich to her senior English class, after she had heard the last oral composition accompanied with an instrument to draw the attention of the rest of the class.

There were rough sketches drawn on the black board to demonstrate scientific operations. Banners and sea shells showed the travelers' experiences, and Indian pottery drew attention to parts of New Mexico. Some of the students drifted off into the biological world with frogs and locusts, and Jack Taylor's huge collection of marbles gave a faint idea of gambling, while their true purpose was to tell what part the marbles play in the world. Many other very interesting objects were discussed such as pianos, old and foreign coins, baseball, and terracing. An envelope moistener showed how much trouble it is to lick an envelope.

Radio Club Meets First Time Mon.

With nine boys attending, the Radio Club met last Monday for the first time with Mr. Aubrey Fox as sponsor.

After discussing to build radio sets and learn the code, Hal Gamble was elected president, and James Pope, vice president and secretary-treasurer. Donnell Foster and Fred Hart were appointed to serve with James Pope on the program committee. The boys decided to pay a membership fee of 25 cents. The Radio Club will meet every Wednesday from 3 to 4 in the science room.

GIRL SCOUTS MEET WITH POLLY LITTLE

The Girl Scouts of the Thistle Troop met at the home of Polly Little Thursday night.

In the business meeting they changed their meeting time from Thursday night to Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the high school gymnasium.

Watermelon was served.

Carruth Will Speak On Trip At P. T. A. Tuesday

Superintendent I. B. Carruth will speak on his European trip last summer at the first meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association which will be held next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

The program for the evening is to be made up of a musical number by Mrs. Lee Foster, a reading by Miss Edith Shields, and the lecture by Mr. Carruth. All committee chairmen and room mothers will be named for the year. Everyone is urged to attend the first meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association, which promises to be instructive and inspirational.

Immediately following the program and business session the parents are giving a reception in the high school gymnasium for the faculty members of the public school.

Leading Papers Taken By High School Library

The Canyon High School Library is taking two of the United States leading newspapers, ten monthly magazines, and two small Mexican newspapers.

The New York Times, published daily by the New York Times Co., New York City, is the larger of the two newspapers. The Christian Science Monitor, the other paper, is also an international daily newspaper published by the Christian Science Publishing Society, Boston, Mass. Both keep up to date on all the news that is happening the world over, which is fitting to print. They omit the cheap scandal type of news.

The ten magazines that the library is receiving are: Popular Science, Good Housekeeping, National Geographic, Scientific American, The American Magazine, Woman's Home Companion, Scholastic, Literary Digest, Review of Reviews, and Reader's Digest.

The two small newspapers that are printed in Spanish are "La Luz" and "El Eco."

Sport Shorts

The Eagles were downed in their first encounter with the Lefors Pirates, but will come out tomorrow night to avenge their defeat by flying over the Panhandle Panthers in their annual classic.

The girls will also be dressed in new pep uniforms and will be supported by the boys' pep squad. Jack Inman was representing the boys last Saturday night by helping Mary Ella Davis and Marie O'Donald lead the entire pep squad. Between halves the pep squad will entertain those who attend the Panhandle-Canyon game with a stunt.

Weldon Fox is reporting for practice with the Eagles, and is expected to be seen in action soon.

UPFOLD, MOORE AND JOHNSON DRIVE BUSESSE

Three capable men of Canyon are employed to drive the three school buses of the Canyon Independent School district.

Jim Upfold, driving his first year, drives bus No. 1 going south-east. Mr. Upfold is an experienced bus driver and mechanic. J. A. Moore, driving his third year, drives bus No. two going north-west. G. W. Johnson, driving his second year, drives bus No. three going southeast.

EXES SUPPORT EAGLES

The Ex-Eagles have been strongly supporting the Eagle squad this year by helping finance the athletic department.

They are sponsoring the sale of season tickets to the citizens of Canyon. There was a large crowd of Ex-Eagles at the football game Saturday night.

Robert Black, president of the Ex-Eagles association said, "We want the Eagles to know we are back of them one hundred per cent."

Mrs. Guy Tabor, former teacher in the grade school and wife of the former principal of the high school, visited with her two daughters, Coystol and Jacquelin, in Canyon High School Monday afternoon.

Bud Myers, ex-student of Canyon High School, who is attending Texas Tech at Lubbock this year, visited in Canyon last week end.

Wayne Porter, graduate of 1930, teaches in night school at the Canyon High School.

Two members of the junior class, Doris Nelson and Dick Sanders, withdrew from school this week.

4A Makes Trip to Amarillo on Train To Study Travel

As part of a unit on "How We Travel," the 4A class under the supervision of Miss Annis Smith, made a trip to Amarillo last Thursday.

The class left school at 10:30 o'clock and went to the depot where each child bought his own ticket. Mr. R. McGee showed them through the depot and explained the different rooms. Mr. W. P. Sharnan explained the signal chart.

The group went on the 11 o'clock train. The pullman conductor showed them the berths and the air-conditioning in the pullman cars.

Mrs. John Pope, Mrs. Ed Harrell, Mrs. W. P. Sharnan, Mrs. Bill Black, Mrs. Andy Walsh and Mrs. R. E. Harter met the class at the station in Amarillo.

From the station they went to the English Airport. The TWA plane was at the field. While the passengers were eating lunch, the field manager showed the class inside the TWA plane. The children were interested in seeing the plane take off. The hanger was another interesting feature of the airport.

After leaving the airport, the class went to Elwood park for lunch.

After the children had played in the park for a few minutes, they went to the Union Bus Station. They were interested in the ticket office and the place where the baggage was kept.

From the bus station they journeyed to the Herring Hotel. Mr. Peterson, the manager, took the class up to the roof which is fourteen stories high. From here they had a good view of Amarillo.

The radio tower on top of the Herring Hotel is the highest point in Texas because of the altitude of Amarillo and the height of the tower.

Mr. Peterson showed them the elevator mechanism, the Crystal Ball Room, the main lounge (which was of great interest to the children), the kitchen, the water softener room, the ice plant (which holds 3,000 pounds), and the ice boxes.

After completing the visit through the hotel, Mr. Peterson gave each member of the group a post card of the Herring Hotel.

Social Is Given Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class was entertained last Thursday evening with a watermelon feast given by Mrs. Bert Newlin, room mother for the sophomore class.

Members of the class and their sponsor, Miss Grace Clark, gathered at the Newlin home at 7 o'clock to enjoy a watermelon feast. Outdoor games and dancing were the principal forms of entertainment during the evening. Outside sponsors present other than the sponsor were, Miss Jewell Foster, and Miss Mattie Jordan.

GRADE TEACHERS EXCHANGED ROOMS

Miss Shields and Miss Foster, grade teachers, exchanged rooms. A new book case was made for the reading room, but it would not go between the radiators, so the reading room was moved to the English room. The lighting in the reading room is better suited to the eyes than it was.

CHORUS MEETS TUESDAY

Last Tuesday Miss Gwendolyn Black found the music room of the grade school building filled with attractive young ladies ready to make the music record this year in the Chorus Club for Canyon High School. According to Miss Black, many amusements, much pomp, and praise, and many happy times learning new songs will be had this year.

L. L. MONROE DIES

PANHANDLE TO PLAY EAGLES FRIDAY NIGHT

EAGLES IN PRIME CONDITION FOR COMING GAME WITH PANTHERS

The Canyon Eagles will clash with the Panhandle Panthers for the second thriller of the season on the local gridiron next Friday night.

The Panthers boast of having seven lettermen back from the squad that defeated the Eagles 6 to 0 in the season of 1934.

In the history of football between the two schools which began in 1927, the Panthers have defeated the Eagles only once, that being done last year. Therefore the Eagles through intense training during the last will fight hard to uphold the old tradition.

The game will begin promptly at 8 o'clock at Buffalo Stadium.

Seniors of '35 Are Well Represented Among W.T. Frosh

Thirty-two of the 47 seniors that were graduated from Canyon High School last year have enrolled in the West Texas State Teachers College for the fall term.

They are: Kenneth Black, Rolland Black, Ed Brooks, Kenneth Cayton, Bill Cone, Curtis Ellison, Lawrence Fulton, James Hill, Jack Oldham, Hampton Lisle, Robert Orton, Lorenzo Wirt, Chris Woodman, Lorene Bessire, Helen Bowman, Thelma Bryant, Jewel Chambers, Lorna Cone, Margaret Croson, Rubye Foster, Frances Gill, Mary May Harrison, Winnie Dee Hicks, Arnetta Kirkpatrick, Mary Ella Lowe, Ruth McCrery, Gladys McBride, Margaret Nicholas, Wilma Price, Mable Schmitz, Yvonne Thomas, and Irene Thompson.

Bud Myers is attending Texas Technological College at Lubbock.

Estill Furlow is taking a post-graduate course in Canyon High School.

Steen Improves Rooms In Grade School Building

Aside from helping Milton Kiker, the janitor for the high school, J. M. Steen made improvements in the grade school last summer.

Mr. Steen made several improvements in the grade school. There were reading racks in Miss Edith Shields' and Miss Annis Smith's rooms, and shelves and racks in the library.

He helped Mr. Kiker four weeks with the carpenter work which Mr. Kiker carried on in the high school buildings, and two weeks painting and staining the floors of the high school building.

Boys Form Pep Squad; 40 Join

A total of forty boys, not coming out for football, met last Friday afternoon and organized the first boys' pep squad in the history of Canyon High School.

The sponsor, Mr. Aubrey Fox, and the leaders, Jack Inman and Forest Hill, and Superintendent I. B. Carruth made talks on the subject. The squad elected for president, Hal Gamble.

When the boys had finished signing up, they went out and watched the football boys practice and gave three yells for the team.

Teacher For Twenty-three Years---Enrolls In W. T.

Was Dean of College and Head of Math Department

After having been a member of the W. T. faculty for 23 years, L. G. Allen, 71, enrolled Saturday for two graduate courses here.

Mr. Allen helped to organize the West Texas State Normal College in 1910. He served as head of the department of mathematics and performed the functions of dean of the college, although he did not bear that title until 1918 when the name of the college was changed to the West Texas State Teachers College. Present Dean R. P. Jarrett and Registrar D. A. Shirley served as associate deans under Dean Allen.

In 1927, Mr. Allen was forced to resign from the office of dean because of a nervous breakdown. However, he continued to serve as head of the department of mathematics until he retired in 1933. C. A. Murray then became head of the department of mathematics.

The aged educator enrolled for Education 531 and History 421. His student number is 7500a. "I had two purposes in enrolling for these courses," he said. "Time passed too slowly with nothing to do, and I wanted to express my faith in the capability of the institution to offer graduate work."

program will not allow acreage reduction to a point that might cause a scarcity of wheat. The crop insurance features of the new contract will be essentially the same as was contained in the 1933-1935 program; in that the farmer who has a crop failure will receive his parity price payment at the same rate as though he had produced a crop, and payments will be no greater in cases where above normal crops are produced. This feature of the program has been of great benefit to farmers in this section during the past two years of crop failures. Many farmers consider this feature alone to be well worth while even if nothing more was contained in the Adjustment Program.

Col. E. O. Thompson Announces For Re-Election For 1936

Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Railroad Commission, said Sunday he will be a candidate for renomination in next summer's Democratic primaries. Thompson is the first candidate to announce for a major office.

The campaign will be pitched, Thompson said, on the record of the commission in administering oil and gas conservation laws.

"This commission has fought for the right of the people to control our own internal affairs in oil and gas production," Thompson said. "My race should decide whether we have truly represented the people's views in this matter. Our oil law is written to protect the consumer as well as the producer. We have administered it faithfully."

Thompson charged certain big oil companies with attempting to force acreage proration in Texas and attacked price maneuvering and import policies.

Gov. Ross Sterling appointed Thompson to the commission in February, 1932, on resignation of Pat M. Neff. He was elected in the November, 1932, election for Neff's unexpired term and has been chairman since January.

Nautical-minded President Roosevelt turns again to the bounding main for his vacation joys. After a trip across the United States, with stops at Boulder Dam and Los Angeles, and a motor trip to the San Diego exposition, President Roosevelt has revealed he will board the U. S. S. Houston, shown above, for a 20-day Pacific cruise. At his desk on the Houston, shown at left, the president will keep in contact with United States affairs when he is not deep-sea fishing. The ocean voyage will feature a trip to the Cocos Islands. Upon its return to the United States, the Houston will pass through the Panama Canal and then either dock at a Gulf port or steam up the Atlantic coast to Annapolis, Md.
